

PREPARING FOR NEVADA GRAND ASSEMBLY

When should I begin to prepare for Grand Assembly?

Preparations for Grand Assembly begin the day after our Grand Assembly Sessions end – for the Grand Assembly Committee, the Adult Leadership Team, and the Grand Officers.

Immediately following Grand Assembly, each Grand Officer should have memorized (word perfect) the ritualistic work for her current appointment. This will ensure she is prepared to fill in at her station during the Grand year.

Build A Grandie Program:

The Build A Grandie program is intended to help Grand Officers prepare themselves for Grand Assembly during the Grand year, rather than waiting until the weeks or days before Grand Assembly. Through this program Grand Officers should have completed the following during the Summer and Fall terms: business cards, Grand Officer Jacket, Trailer (and if applicable, Page) sash, and hair bow. Items to be completed prior to Grand Assembly, generally during the Spring term, include: mascots (which are to be dressed at Grand Assembly), pantaloons (and shift, if necessary) for the Pantaloon Parade, and costumes for reports, presentations, and protest.

Grand Assembly music selections:

Grand Officers who are responsible for music for an escort, presentation, retiring march, etc., are encouraged to listen to and read the words, paying close attention to the Rainbow appropriateness of each selection. While lots of popular songs are fun to listen to and enjoy, the lyrics may not be appropriate for Rainbow. If the songs are considered to be Rainbow appropriate, the Grand Officers responsible for making the selections are to provide the songs (including the title, artist, version, and lyrics) to the Director of Grand Assembly Music prior to finalizing the selection. The Director of Grand Assembly Music has final approval authority for all music played during Grand Assembly. This is not negotiable.

Memory Work:

Grand Officers are expected to be word perfect in the presentation of their memory work during Grand Assembly, giving particular attention to ritualistic parts, which are well known to many of those in attendance.

Grand Officers may be asked by the Supreme Officer to participate in other Grand Assembly ceremonies, such as Majority. These parts should be memorized as soon as the assignments are made and the memory work has been provided by the Supreme Officer.

Grand Lecturer, Grand Editor, Grand Bow Officers, Grand Flag Bearers, Grand Representatives and others who have special speeches, reports and tributes must have their materials approved and memorized. (The requirements for these remarks and the submission deadlines are included in the Deadlines and Duties sections of the Grand Officer Handbook.) While these messages are not ritualistic, and therefore do not need to be memorized word perfect, Grand Officers are strongly encouraged to make a concerted effort to do so. It can be very difficult for the Pages to prompt girls who are not proficient in their work.

Grand Assembly often generates feelings of anxiety or fear, especially when speeches must be given from memory. Being well prepared can alleviate this anxiety or fear!

Grand Officers should never introduce themselves during Grand Assembly. If presenters are to be introduced, that will be done by the Grand Worthy Advisor or the Presiding Officer.

Prior to Grand Assembly, each Grand Officer must prove her memory work to her Assembly. Grand Officers have several opportunities to accomplish this, including Grand Officer Practice Day and regular Assembly meetings. Grand Officers who have not proven their memory work prior to Grand Assembly will not fill their offices at Grand Assembly. NO EXCEPTIONS! Grand Officers have an entire year to demonstrate their work. There is no excuse for not doing so prior to Grand Assembly.

What is worn and when during Grand Assembly?

- Pants may not be worn in the Grand Assembly room, by either Rainbow members or female adults, beginning with Saturday morning's practice!
- Hairpieces are worn at all times beginning with Friday's practice. The Grandie Party and Fun Night are appropriate occasions to let one's hair down (literally).
- Each Grand Officer's dress will be ready to wear PRIOR to her arrival at Grand Assembly, which simply means Grand Officers need to have met their fitting schedule with the Grand Dressmaker. The Grand Officer dresses ARE A SECRET, which is a longstanding Nevada tradition. PLEASE KEEP IT THAT WAY!!
- Grand Officers will wear shifts, nylons, pantaloons, appropriate shoes, hoops, hairpieces, and hair bows to all practices (beginning on Friday afternoon). Because shifts will be worn for long periods of time, they should be made in a comfortable style. Mini-skirts and crop-tops are not acceptable; a cut-out back, provided appropriate undergarments are worn (and not seen), is acceptable.

Ankle-length pantaloons must be worn under Grand Officer dresses at all times. Pantaloons should cover the ankles, but not drag on the floor or ruffle over the top of one's shoes. Grand Officers often enhance one pair of pantaloons, or make a special pair, to wear during the Grand Officers' Pantaloon Parade (contest). Because pantaloons are undergarments, a clean pair should be worn each day!!!

Shoes are to be CLEAN, white, approved (Grand Officer) shoes, which have been "broken-in" prior to Grand Assembly.

Wearing hoops during practices assists with spacing during floor work.

- Jewelry at Grand Assembly is limited to Grand Officer pin/s, ONE small pair of stud-type earrings, and one small ring per hand. Watches, necklaces, bracelets, and facial piercings may not be worn. Tongue piercings must be in a neutral color and not interfere with one's speaking ability. Masters of the Grand Cross should wear their Grand Cross to all Grand Assembly Sessions.

Time management:

For Grand Officers (and the Adult Leadership Team), Grand Assembly is a whirlwind of activity – between practices, fun events, Assembly events, Sessions, and a few hours of sleep. In order to get all of the work accomplished and enjoy the fun, it is imperative that everyone be mindful of the limited time available for each activity.

A successful Grand Assembly requires the respect, support, and enthusiasm of all Nevada Rainbow girls, especially the Grand Officers. Therefore, Grand Officers are expected to:

- Respect each other and all of the adult workers by being on time to practices and Sessions. On time at Grand Assembly means being in line, ready to go (and quiet) 15 minutes prior to the scheduled start time. Additionally, be respectful during practice by sitting up straight and paying close attention to the entire practice. Information is shared during practice that may be beneficial in the future – when filling in for a local assembly or perhaps during a future Grand appointment. If questions or confusion arise, ask for clarification. Others may be equally confused.
- Support each other by accommodating, within reason, the needs of others. Share space in the Grandie dressing room and rest rooms, etc. Clean up any "mess" you make and help those around you do the same.
- Energize each other by ensuring everyone get plenty of rest and eats healthy meals. Consuming inordinate amounts of candy and soda and surviving on two or three hours of sleep each night will not make this a very pleasant experience! Please remember and be respectful of the “Energy” drinks are BANNED at all Rainbow events!
- Make a daily shower schedule so everyone showers EVERY day (and not just at Grand but every day of one’s life!!) and then stick to it. If Suzie takes the first shower, she must be the first up and in the water, Betty needs to be up and ready to take the next shower, etc. Procrastination (or hitting the snooze button just one more time) will not work if everyone in the room is to get showered -- and not showering is not an option -- eww!! Posting the shower schedule for each room eliminates the need for further negotiation.
